

LIQUOR ORDINANCE RIDDLED BY COURT

DIXON DRY MEASURE PUNCHED
FULL OF HOLES BY LATE DECISION.

LOCKER CLUBS ARE GIVEN O.K.

Court Says Cities Have No Power To Prevent Individuals Using Liquor.

Copies of the recent decision of the supreme court, in which it is held that cities have no power to prevent locker-clubs which are properly conducted, have been received in Dixon, and as a result it is said a number of clubs are now under formation. The decision is of interest in that it automatically invalidates many sections of an ordinance passed by the Dixon council after the township became dry.

The reporter's syllabus of the decision follows:

"1. Municipal Corporations. What is not within the grant of power with reference to intoxicating liquor. The power of a town or city to regulate, prohibit or license the selling of intoxicating liquor does not include power to make it an offense to receive, keep or use intoxicating liquor at a club or other place for individual personal use as a beverage, only, where there is no element of selling, giving away or otherwise disposing of the liquor as a device to evade the law; nor does it include the power to make it an offense to maintain or assist in maintaining a club where intoxicating liquor is received or kept as a beverage by the individual members for their personal use only.

"2. Same—Town or city cannot prohibit person from receiving or using intoxicating liquor. There is no law in Illinois which prohibits a person from receiving, keeping or using intoxicating liquor for private consumption, when such receiving, keeping or using is done in such a manner as not to interfere with the rights of others and there is no intoxication or disturbance; and a city, town or village has no power to enact an ordinance prohibiting such receiving, keeping or using.

"3. Same—A club cannot be used as a means of evading laws or ordinances against the sale of liquor. A club, or assembly of individuals as a club or association, cannot be used as a means of evading and violating the provisions of the Dram Shop law or Local Option law or ordinances or municipal corporations prohibiting or licensing the sale of intoxicating liquor.

"4. Same—Police power does not authorize ordinance prohibiting possession and using intoxicating liquor. The police power of a city, town or village does not authorize an ordinance prohibiting a person from receiving, keeping or using intoxicating liquor as a beverage where no question of an unlawful selling or giving away is involved, as intoxicating liquor is property, and the police power does not justify an arbitrary interference with the property and privileges of citizens.

"5. Same—A city cannot arbitrarily declare a thing a nuisance. The power delegated to municipal corporations does not include the power to declare something a nuisance which is not a nuisance per se or recognized by the common law or the statute as a nuisance, and does not extend to declaring every place to be a nuisance where intoxicating liquor is received, kept or used as a beverage, irrespective of the manner of such use.

"6. Same—What is not within the power of the State or a City. It is not within the power of a municipal corporation or the State to regulate the private life or conduct of a citizen in the use of his property in matters in which he, alone, is affected and others are not necessarily affected."

Leading Progressives Are For Col. F.O. Lowden For Governor

"For whom will the Progressives be in the three-cornered fight for the Republican gubernatorial nomination?"

Answer came today from the Lowden camp in the form of evidence supporting the declaration of former Attorney General W. H. Stead, campaign manager for Colonel Lowden, that a majority of the progressives in Illinois, especially downstate, are in the open for the Ogle county candidate. The reasons which are advanced are:

First: His platform and declarations on public questions, which appeal to the judgment and satisfy the demands of the progressives.

Second: His record in Congress on labor and other social justice measures, plus his record as a member of the Republican National committee in 1912, when his independence and judicial attitude in voting on the Roosevelt-Taft contest won progressive commendation.

MOTORCYCLE GIRLS ON A LONG JOURNEY

MISSES AUGUSTA AND ADELINE
VAN BUREN ARRIVED IN DIXON TODAY.

Two pretty young ladies, Misses Augusta and Adeline Van Buren, rode into Dixon this morning on the first motorcycle trip from New York City to Los Angeles ever attempted by two unaccompanied women. As members of the National Security league, in which they are enlisted as dispatch riders, they have given over their vacation to this trip to prove that in time of need women can make it possible for all men to be at the front by taking their places as dispatch bearers. They left New York City July 5 and during their trip they made one day's record mileage of 325.

MERCURY CLIMBED TO 95; WAS HOTTEST DAY

GOVERNMENT THERMOMETER IN GREAT TRY FOR ALTITUDE MARK.

Tuesday was the heat record breaker for 1916—thus far, and thousands of sweltering citizens of this vicinity are hoping that the record established will stand for the rest of the season, anyway. The mercury in the government thermometer tried to punch the top out, and if the manufacturer hadn't used the hardest kind of glass obtainable some such catastrophe would have occurred. As it was, the instrument registered 95—and that was in the shade, too.

Leading Progressives Are For Col. F.O. Lowden For Governor

The evidence bearing upon his voting attitude in these contests is offered in the form of a statement by Republican National Committeeman F. B. Kellogg of Minnesota, now the party's nominee for United States senator, known as a progressive republican. Mr. Kellogg, who has volunteered to come into Illinois to make speeches for Colonel Lowden, states in an interview, referring to the contests:

Lowden Was Fair.
"Colonel Lowden acted fairly in every instance. First he made a thorough study of the underlying principles in the rules, then applied the rules to the testimony and finally cast his ballot as his judgment dictated. He at all times showed himself independent, fearless and fair."

MENDOTA NEGROES IN FATAL SHOOTING BEE

B. ANDERSON, BURLINGTON KY.
TRACK WALKER, DEAD AS RESULT OF BRAWL.

HIS SLAYER IS A FUGITIVE

Trouble, Which Started In the South, Culminated At Home of Oscar Barney.

(Special to Telegraph)

Mendota, July 19—As a result of trouble the two negroes had in the south several years ago, B. Anderson, who came to Mendota a few weeks ago as a track man for the C. B. & Q. Railroad company, is dead, and Oscar Barney is a fugitive from justice.

Barney, who came here several months ago, married a Mendota negro, Mrs. Walsh, and since their marriage they have resided in a hut north of the city. Several days ago Anderson told young Walsh Barney's son-in-law, there would be trouble if he ever met his step-father.

Followed Barney Home.

Consequently when Anderson followed Barney home and refused to leave when ordered off the place, Barney got his revolver. Armed with the gun he repeated his demand that Anderson get off the grounds, but instead Anderson became very insulting. Barney shot and Anderson turned and ran 300 feet before he fell.

The police were not notified for over two hours afterward, during which time Barney made his getaway.

HEAT CRIPPLES DRAWBRIDGE

Sun Expands It So Much It Won't Close.

Oshkosh, Wis., July 19.—Tuesday's intense heat—90 in the shade and more than 100 in the sun—caused the iron work on the Main street bridge to expand more than eight inches, with the result that the draw could not be closed after a steamer passed through at noon.

It was necessary to saw off a little of the draw spans to close the draw.

Gives Beneficial Advice To Farmers On Shocking Oats

The county agent of McLean county has the following very timely bulletin on shocking oats which should be of benefit to all farmers:

As a result of poor shocking, many persons lost outright more than 1000 bushels of oats last year. In great numbers of cases, even several thousands of bushels were threshed in a condition scarcely fit for sale and only about one-half of the price of oats in good condition was or may be obtained for such oats. This condition is due to poor shocking.

It is conservative to say that, due to lack of skill and care in shocking, more than 100,000 bushels of oats were a total loss in this county last year and that fully a million bushels while salable, brought 30 to 50 per cent less as a result of badly constructed shocks.

Derix had been shot through the head twice. No attempt was made at robbery.

Police are searching for two men who hired Derix and his automobile for a ride about the country the night before. Both men and Derix' machine are missing.

LOYAL MADDEN DIED IN CHICAGO TUESDAY

TIM OF TYPHOID-PNEU-MONIA ATTACK

Loyal Madden, who passed away in Chicago on Tuesday, July 18, of typhoid pneumonia, was born in Dixon May 13, 1892, the son of Mrs. Wm. Madden of this city. His death occurred at his home on North Ridgeway avenue, Chicago, after a brief illness. Mr. Madden was a resident of Dixon until a few years ago and his many friends here will be greatly saddened by the news.

Mr. Madden was married June 10, 1914, to Miss Gladys Woodruff of Chicago, who survives him, together with his mother, Mrs. Wm. Madden, and two sisters, Miss Marie Madden and Mrs. Louis Leydig, all of this city. His mother and sisters were called to the city a few days ago by the news of his critical illness.

206 SAXON SIXES

travel 61,800 miles without stopping
average 23.5 miles per gallon of gasoline

ON July 1st, 206 Saxon dealers in all parts of the country, driving stock model Saxon Sixes, staged a 300-mile non-stop run to prove the remarkable gasoline economy of Saxon Six.

The winner averaged 34 2/3 miles per gallon of gasoline. The grand average for the 206 Saxon "Sixes" was 23.5 miles per gallon.

The total distance traveled was 61,800 miles—more than twice around the world -- nearly 20 times across the continent. During the entire 61,800 miles not a single motor stopped running.

Men from a leading newspaper in each of the 206

cities acted as official observers, and their affidavits certify to the correctness of the records.

Stop for a moment and picture to yourself this remarkable scene in its entirety.

Don't think of just one Saxon "Six" traveling 300 miles without stopping, and averaging 23.5 miles per gallon.

Don't think of just one car "timed to the minute" for a gasoline test on a measured gallon of gas over a specially selected piece of road-way, all conditions ideal.

Think of 206 Saxon "Sixes," each traveling 300 miles without stopping, meeting every condition of road and weather, running through congested city traffic, through mud, through deep sand, through rock strewn canyons over hills and mountains.

And then the full significance of this average of 23.5 miles per gallon of gasoline will strike you.

This country-wide Saxon "Six" test proves what any Saxon owner could do with his own car. Remember that in most instances, each Saxon "Six" carried five passengers.

Ask yourself [if you would know just how great an achievement this is] what other car, of equal size and power at less than $1000 could match this record.

Yet, after all; the average of 23.5 miles per gallon of gasoline is not the only remarkable thing about this 61,800-mile run.

For there is the fact that not a single one of these 206 motors stopped running once.

There is the fact that no mechanical troubles occurred.

There is the fact of the extraordinary stability and strength of Saxon "Six" that this run establishes.

In no other way could the pledge of STRENGTH, ECONOMY, SERVICE, made to Saxon "Six" owners by the Saxon Motor Car Corporation, be proved more vividly, more clearly, more impressively than by this performance of the car itself.

A fat man is a man who thanks Providence and is happy whenever he weighs a pound less than he did one month ago.

Fat men are globular in shape and wear collars that look like a draw string. They have legs and feet like other men, but have to take someone else's word for it. If a really fat man were to meet his own feet on the street he would pass them by as strangers.

Some men weigh 300 pounds and are not fat while others weigh 200 pounds and brush buttons off on both sides working their way through the dining room door. It all depends upon height. If a man gains six inches in height when he falls down he is genuinely fat and should not be joked about it.

Fat men come in odd shapes and are usually not artistic. They bulge in peculiar places like a Turkish mosque and when a tailor starts a suit for a pear-shaped patron he plots out its curves with a wagon tire. There is nothing more pathetic than a pair of pants that have just been completed for a man who wears two-bushel socks. They look like a pair of knice breeches for Goliath.

The fat man leads a timid and worried life. He is always thinking about thin-legged chairs and elevator cables, and when he sits down in a street car he knows that he is being hated by three people who are standing. Doing a heavy freight business as he does, he is unable to walk far, and no bed has been invented that will hold a fat man who is a good free sleeper without getting tired and letting him down occasionally.

The fat man enjoys winter, for even the coldest days can't get thru him until about 4 p. m. But in April he begins to melt and by July he has to mop his face with a rubber window cleaner every five minutes. When a fat man becomes incandescent all the way thru he consists of pure misery, especially if he is too polite to wear a collar button and carry the rest of his neck harness over his arm.

In spite of all his troubles the fat man is genial and good-natured and is usually approached fearlessly by book agents. There is no greater hero than a 350-pound man with a dark red overhanging neck laughing steamily on a hot July day as he jokes about the weather.

UNIQUE CHEW IS MELLOW "SPEAR HEAD"

Famous Tobacco with the
Sweet, Tasty, Whole-

AN OLD-TIME FAVORITE

Chewing is the one best way to use tobacco, because it's the only way the choice leaf can get next to your tongue and give you all the benefit of the wholesome, digestive juices stored up in it by nature.

But your chew should be in plug form—the purest, most natural form into which tobacco leaf is made.

Among plug tobaccos, Spear Head, for a third of a century, has held first place as the unique chew. Its distinctive flavor is supremely delicious—a ripe, relishy flavor not found in any other tobacco made.

A luscious chew of Spear Head braces up a lazy appetite and makes you feel fresher and snappier.

Franklin For Him.

Judge Dean Franklin of Macomb, who was the progressive nominee for lieutenant governor four years ago, has just made the following statement over his own signature:

"I have had opportunity and occasion to note the action and views of Colonel Frank O. Lowden on various matters touching the progressives and progressive principles. It gives me pleasure to say that always have I found him eminently fair and independent of political dictation."

The only congressman elected from downstate by the progressives of Illinois was W. H. Hinebaugh of Ottawa, who had charge of the National Progressive Congressional committee headquarters in Chicago two years ago and who at Washington was recognized as one of the party's leaders.

Hinebaugh Joins Forces

"The progressives of the nation under the leadership of Col. Roosevelt have, I believe, wisely and patriotically decided to support Charles E. Hughes for the presidency."

"In the state of Illinois they will act wisely if they look carefully into the records and views of the three republican candidates for governor before determining their action in the primaries."

"It appears to me that there are insuperable obstacles to our voting for anyone other than Colonel Lowden and I feel confident that in this district that is what most of us are going to do. He is the only candidate that can consistently claim the support of the progressives."

"As National Committeeman from Illinois in the Taft-Roosevelt contest of 1912, Colonel Lowden's action was absolutely fair and his advocacy of a constitutional convention, woman suffrage and other progressive measures makes him the logical candidate for progressive support."

"Personally Colonel Smith is a very fine gentleman but, of course, every progressive knows that he managed Mr. Taft's campaign in Illinois four years ago and took much delight in harpooning the followers of Theodore Roosevelt and the principals of the progressive party."

"Mr. Hull is known by all to be Mr. Deneen's candidate for governor and his legislative record makes it impossible for progressives to give him serious consideration."

"For these reasons I feel that the progressives should vote for Colonel Lowden in the September primaries, and I shall urge my friends to take that position."

Bellingham Herald, (July 9th)—A quiet home wedding took place Sunday at high noon at the home of Mrs. M. E. Tripp, 2438 Ellis street, when her daughter, Jessie Eleanor, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Guthrie Garrett, of Vancouver, B. C.

Lohengrin's bridal chorus, played by Miss Gertrude Mosier, announced the bridal party, who took their place under a beautiful arch of white roses combined with smilax and ferns, from which were suspended three pretty white bells. Miss Jennie Anderson as maid of honor was gown in pink crepe de chene and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The bride wore a gown of ivory silk net over pussy willow taffeta, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas. The only jewel worn was a bar of pearls—a gift from the groom. Master Eliza Waite, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer, carrying the ring in a lily. The groom was attended by Mr. W. Smirl. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served from a table most attractive in pink and white decorations. A large wedding cake decorated with pink and white rosebuds and a miniature bride and groom adorned the center of the table. TAKE FISH TALES SERIOUSLY

Authorities at Danville Threaten to Investigate Some Whoppers.

Danville, Ill., July 19.—As a result of boasts made by several young men regarding the number and size of fish they caught and the manner in which they were caught, the fishermen may face serious charges in the near future. One man said they were caught with a seine. The Vermillion County Fish Protective association lodged a complaint with the state's attorney.

CITIZENS SHOT DOWN IN HOMES IN ILLINOIS

Troops on Border, State Is Short of Protection.

Springfield, Ill., July 19.—Sheriff McGinnin of Hardin county sent a telegram to Governor Edward G. Dunne asking that state troops be sent to Rosiclare to stop violence among striking lead miners. A riot was imminent, he said. The governor promised to start an investigation immediately.

The sheriff's telegram said: "For two weeks conspiracy against lives and property has existed at Rosiclare. Have sworn in deputies, yet nightly citizens are shot at and homes are shot into. Last night a deputy and three citizens were wounded by hidden assassins. Two hundred strikers patrolling street prevented deputies hunting assassins last night."

Governor Dunne answered: "Have directed Assistant Adjutant General Shand and James F. Morris, secretary of state mining board, take next train for Golconda. Meet them. Will act promptly on receipt of their report."

The governor said he desired an investigation first, as five companies of militia are doing strike duty at La Salle, costing the state $800 daily, and that a more serious contingency may arise elsewhere which would make sending troops imperative.

206 SAXON SIXES

travel 61,800 miles without stopping
average 23.5 miles per gallon of gasoline

ON July 1st, 206 Saxon dealers in all parts of the country, driving stock model Saxon Sixes, staged a 300-mile non-stop run to prove the remarkable gasoline economy of Saxon Six.

The winner averaged 34 2-3 miles per gallon of gasoline. The grand average for the 206 Saxon "Sixes" was 23.5 miles per gallon.

The total distance traveled was 61,800 miles--more than twice around the world -- nearly 20 times across the continent. During the entire 61,800 miles not a single motor stopped running.

Men from a leading newspaper in each of the 206

cities acted as official observers, and their affidavits certify to the correctness of the records.

Stop for a moment and picture to yourself this remarkable scene in its entirety.

Don't think of just one Saxon "Six" traveling 300 miles without stopping, and averaging 23.5 miles per gallon.

Don't think of just one car "timed to the minute" for a gasoline test on a measured gallon of gas over a specially selected piece of roadway, all conditions ideal.

Think of 206 Saxon "Sixes," each traveling 300 miles without stopping, meeting every condition of road and weather, running through congested city traffic, through mud, through deep sand, through rock strewn canyons over hills and mountains.

And then the full significance of this average of 23.5 miles per gallon of gasoline will strike you.

This country-wide Saxon "Six" test proves what any Saxon owner could do with his own car. Remember that in most instances, each Saxon "Six" carried five passengers.

Ask yourself [if you would known just how great an achievement this is] what other car, of equal size and power at less than $1000 could match this record.

Yet, after all; the average of 23.5 miles per gallon of gasoline is not the only remarkable thing about this 61,800-mile run.

For there is the fact that not a single one of these 206 motors stopped running once.

There is the fact that no mechanical troubles occurred.

There is the fact of the extraordinary stability and strength of Saxon "Six" that this run establishes.

In no other way could the pledge of STRENGTH, ECONOMY, SERVICE, made to Saxon "Six" owners by the Saxon Motor Car Corporation, be proved more vividly, more clearly, more impressively than by this performance of the car itself.

DIXON ILLINOIS

A fat man is a man who thanks Providence and is happy whenever he weighs a pound less than he did one month ago.

Fat men are globular in shape and wear collars that look like a draw string. They have legs and feet like other men, but have to take someone else's word for it. If a really fat man were to meet his own feet on the street he would pass them by as strangers.

Some men weigh 300 pounds and are not fat while others weigh 200 pounds and brush buttons off on both sides working their way through the dining room door. It all depends upon height. If a man gains six inches in height when he falls down he is genuinely fat and should not be joked about it.

Fat men come in odd shapes and are usually not artistic. They bulge in peculiar places like a Turkish mosque and when a tailor starts a suit for a pear-shaped patron he plots out its curves with a wagon tire. There is nothing more pathetic than a pair of pants that have just been completed for a man who wears two-bushel socks. They look like a pair of knee breeches for Goliath.

The fat man leads a timid and worried life. He is always thinking about thin-legged chairs and elevator cables, and when he sits down in a street car he knows that he is being hated by three people who are standing. Doing a heavy freight business as he does, he is unable to walk far, and no bed has been invented that will hold a fat man who is a good free sleeper without getting tired and letting him down occasionally.

The fat man enjoys winter, for even the coldest days can't get thru him until about 4 p. m. But in April he begins to melt and by July he has to mop his face with a rubber window cleaner every five minutes. When a fat man becomes incandescent all the way thru he consists of pure misery, especially if he is too polite to wear a collar button and carry the rest of his neck harness over his arm.

In spite of all his troubles the fat man is genial and good-natured and is usually approached fearlessly by book agents. There is no greater hero than a 350-pound man with a dark red overhanging neck laughing steamily on a hot July day as he jokes about the weather.

UNIQUE CHEW IS MELLOW "SPEAR HEAD"

Famous Tobacco with the Sweet, Tasty, Whole-
some Relish

AN OLD-TIME FAVORITE

Chewing is the one best way to use tobacco, because it's the only way the choice leaf can get next to your tongue and give you all the benefit of the wholesome, digestive juices stored up in it by nature.

But your chew should be in plug form—the purest, most natural form into which tobacco leaf is made.

Among plug tobaccos, Spear Head, for a third of a century, has held first place as the unique chew.

Its distinctive flavor is supremely delicious—a ripe, relishy flavor not found in any other tobacco made.

A luscious chew of Spear Head braces up a lazy appetite and makes you feel fresher and snappier.

Spear Head is the very best chew that money can buy. Ask your dealer for a 5c or 10c cut.

LOWDEN FOR GOVERNOR

That this "independent and fearless" attitude, which led Mr. Lowden to vote for seating Roosevelt contest-ing delegates when he believed they were in the right, has been noted and appreciated by the progressives is said to explain the friendship of the progressive party men, a great list of whom is treasured in Lowden headquarters. Interviews with many such have appeared. Here are two new ones from men known by reputation, if not personally, to every progressive in Illinois.

Franklin For Him.

Judge Dean Franklin of Macomb, who was the progressive nominee for lieutenant governor four years ago, has just made the following statement over his own signature:

"I have had opportunity and occasion to note the action and views of Colonel Frank O. Lowden on various matters touching the progressives and progressive principles. It gives me pleasure to say that always have I found him eminently fair and independent of political dictation."

The only congressman elected from downstate by the progressives of Illinois was W. H. Hinebaugh of Ottawa, who had charge of the National Progressive Congressional committee headquarters in Chicago two years ago and who at Washington was recognized as one of the party's leaders.

Hinebaugh Joins Forces

"The progressives of the nation under the leadership of Col. Roosevelt have, I believe, wisely and patriotically decided to support Charles E. Hughes for the presidency."

"In the state of Illinois they will act wisely if they look carefully into the records and views of the three republican candidates for governor before determining their action in the primaries."

"It appears to me that there are insuperable obstacles to our voting for anyone other than Colonel Lowden and I feel confident that in this district that is what most of us are going to do. He is the only candidate that can consistently claim the support of the progressives."

"As National Committeeman from Illinois in the Taft-Roosevelt contest of 1912, Colonel Lowden's action was absolutely fair and his advocacy of a constitutional convention, woman suffrage and other progressive measures makes him the logical candidate for progressive support."

"Personally Colonel Smith is a very fine gentleman but, of course, every progressive knows that he managed Mr. Taft's campaign in Illinois four years ago and took much delight in harpooning the followers of Theodore Roosevelt and the principals of the progressive party."

"Mr. Hull is known by all to be Mr. Deneen's candidate for governor and his legislative record makes it impossible for progressives to give him serious consideration."

"For these reasons I feel that the progressives should vote for Colonel Lowden in the September primaries, and I shall urge my friends to take that position."

Galesburg, Ill., July 19.—E. P. Lovejoy of Princeton has been elected president of the Cannon Ball Trail association of Illinois. The annual meeting was held at the Galesburg club. It was decided to re-mark the trail between Aurora and Quincy.

East St. Louis, Ill., July 19.—Her fair skin turning to a metallic bronze and her vitality sapped by sickness, Mrs. Eva Katoni, thirty-five years old, of East St. Louis, is believed to be suffering from the rare Addison's disease.

A short notice of the wedding of Miss Jessie Tripp, a graduate of the Strong College of Music and also a teacher of music here, was contained in one of last week's editions. Below is a fuller account taken from the Bellingham (Wash.) Herald. Miss Tripp has many friends here.

Bellingham Herald, (July 9th)—A quiet home wedding took place Sunday at high noon at the home of Mrs. M. E. Tripp, 2438 Ellis street, when her daughter, Jessie Eleanor, became the bride of Mr. Thomas Guthrie Garrett, of Vancouver, B. C.

Lohengrin's bridal chorus, played by Miss Gertrude Mosier, announced the bridal party, who took their place under a beautiful arch of white roses combined with smilax and ferns, from which were suspended three pretty white bells. The ring service was read by Rev. F. B. Culver in the presence of the immediate relatives. Miss Jennie Anderson as maid of honor was gowning in pink crepe de chene and carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations. The bride wore a gown of ivory silk net over pussy willow taffeta, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and sweet peas. The only jewel worn was a bar of pearls—a gift from the groom. Master Eliza Waite, nephew of the bride, was ring bearer, carrying the ring in a lily. The groom was attended by Mr. W. Smirl. After the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served from a table most attractive in pink and white decorations. A large wedding cake decorated with pink and white rosebuds and a miniature bride and groom adorned the center of the table. TAKE FISH TALES SERIOUSLY

Authorities at Danville Threaten to Investigate Some Whoppers.

Danville, Ill., July 19.—As a result of boasts made by several young men regarding the number and size of fish they caught and the manner in which they were caught, the fishermen may face serious charges in the near future. One man said they were caught with a seine. The Vermillion County Fish Protective association lodged a complaint with the state's attorney.

CITIZENS SHOT DOWN IN HOMES IN ILLINOIS

Troops on Border, State Is Short of Protection.

Springfield, Ill., July 19.—Sheriff McGinnis of Hardin county sent a telegram to Governor Edward G. Dunne asking that state troops be sent to Rosiclare to stop violence among striking lead miners. A riot was imminent, he said. The governor promised to start an investigation immediately. The sheriff's telegram said: "For two weeks conspiracy against lives and property has existed at Rosiclare. Have sworn in deputies, yet nightly citizens are shot at and homes are shot into. Last night a deputy and three citizens were wounded by hidden assassins. Two hundred strikers patrolling street prevented deputies hunting assassins last night." Governor Dunne answered: "Have directed Assistant Adjutant General Shand and James F. Morris, secretary of state mining board, take next train for Golconda. Meet them. Will act promptly on receipt of their report."

The governor said he desired an investigation first, as five companies of militia are doing strike duty at LaSalle, costing the state $800 daily, and that a more serious contingency may arise elsewhere which would make sending troops imperative.

THE HUMAN MACHINE.

"Keep the human machine in fine repair"—this is the slogan of one Wisconsin manufacturer who pursues novel methods of obtaining efficiency. He found one girl at a machine squinting and wrinkling her forehead. He decided that she had eye trouble and after some argument she was induced to go to an oculist. Her work, which required good eyesight, improved wonderfully and she cried out in amazement at the beauty of the world she had never seen before.

Another girl tending a complicated machine obviously had a headache. By a little questioning the efficiency expert learned that she took only a little strong coffee and toast for breakfast. An arrangement was made to add to her morning diet and she, too, found her working capacity increased.

So this efficiency man goes about his plant, solving individual problems and repairing human machines, tactfully but surely. He set to work to reduce the temperature of the factory room and increase its humidity. There was a very noticeable increase in the alertness of employees, their eagerness to work and in the size of their output. Above all, the employees became far more beautiful and contented.

The manufacturer may be actuated by motives of commercial gain, but incidentally, he is making a large number of men and women happier. Would that the United States had more manufacturers and employers given to the study of human equation.—Milwaukee Journal.

COLONEL BRINTON IN THE RACE.

It is announced that Col. William B. Brinton of Dixon is definitely in the race for the Democratic nomination for governor. If this is true, the democrats of Illinois are to be congratulated, and the people of Dixon, regardless of politics, will take a great interest in the campaign of the man who made Dixon one of the best Mayors the city ever had and who has demonstrated his ability in various manners. Col. Brinton has done more for the upbuilding of Dixon than any man in recent decades.

The Telegraph, although on the other side of the fence politically, from Col. Brinton, recommends to the democrats of Illinois the nomination of Col. W. B. Brinton for Governor on the Democratic ticket. Col. Brinton, as President of the Grand Detour Plow company in Dixon and his prominent connection with the advisory board of the Avery company of Peoria, has demonstrated his great ability as a business man, and he is the kind of man who is needed in politics in Illinois.

The Telegraph does not favor a continuance of a democratic administration in Illinois, but we do not hesitate to state that if a democratic administration were necessary that Colonel Brinton would be by all odds the most desirable of all the men that party has to offer to head such an administration.

"CRIMINAL CARELESSNESS."

Do you suppose the I. C. will ever "come to" and erect a warning sign at the crossing of their tracks and North Galena avenue, or will they wait until they kill off a carload of motorists there some day and then do it? What the city administration should force them to do is to put crossing gates at every grade crossing in the city. Are we to allow a lot of plutocratic railroad magnates to clip coupons a little offener at the expense of lives of our citizens? There have been fatal accidents at this particular crossing. There will be more. The attention of the Illinois Central Railway company has been called to the fact that there is not even a sign saying "Railroad" at this crossing. The attention of the company has been called to this fact repeatedly. Now, the question is, will the city allow these appeals for simple little safety devices to protect the lives of its citizens to be so insolently and studiously ignored, or will the city take matters into its own hands and insist that crossing gates or a flagman be placed at the North Galena avenue crossing? There is a duty to be performed and those responsible for this duty may have the blood of innocents on their hands if they fail in their duty.

The same precautions are needed on North Ottawa avenue.

SPIRITUAL FREEDOM OF AMERICA.

Ansonia may yet be called the city of churches.—Ansonia Sentinel. Churches and schools are sources of influence which make for the improvement of personal character and for the development of the civilization of the community by the cultivation of a spirit of obedience to law and respect for the rights of others. Every church in a community, no matter what its denomination, stands for the promotion of social peace and community harmony. The multiplicity of churches means that the people are enjoying freedom of thought and that they are giving expression to it by providing themselves with facilities for public worship as their religious views may suggest. Absolute religious freedom is the reason for the existence of so many churches in the cities of the United States. There would be fewer if there were a forced conformity to any particular creed or church. The world has for centuries longed for the spiritual freedom which is the most cherished privilege of the American citizen.—Hartford Times.

The Doll Was Caught In a High Tree.

Daddy's Bedtime Story — The Little Girl Who Had Big Brothers.

[Adapted from Hans Christian Andersen.]

ONCE upon a time there was a little girl, daddy stated when the children curled up on little stools beside him. "What little girl, daddy?" asked Evelyn when he did not go on. "Oh, a little girl that the moon saw! When the moon first discovered her she was crying. 'Why are you unhappy, little girl?' asked the moon. 'Oh, kind moon, I had a beautiful doll, and my big brothers tossed it up in a tree and then ran away!' she said. The moon stretched his short neck and gazed around for the tree, and, sure enough, caught in a big, high tree, with its arms stretched out among the branches and an unhappy look on its cloth face, was the little girl's doll."

"Did the moon help her?" asked Jack.

"The little girl cried some more and looked almost as unhappy as her doll did. Night was coming on. It was already twilight or else the moon wouldn't have been sipping about looking for trouble."

"Will my poor doll have to stay up in the tree all alone through the dark night, Mr. Moon?" asked the girl.

"The moon looked about carefully and saw no way for her to climb up and get her doll. He looked about for the clouds, hoping to pile them away in one corner of the sky, but they all seemed bent upon making a dark night of it. 'I'm afraid she will, little girl,' the moon told her as gently as he could.

"The little girl could not bear the thought. She wept some more and finally cried: 'I will stay with her! I haven't a bit of courage, but I will not let my dear doll stay outdoors alone all night!'

"Then she looked about and imagined that she saw little brownies in pointed caps peeping through the bushes, and long shadows danced about the doorway. They came nearer and nearer and held out hands toward the tree where the poor doll hung, and they laughed and pointed fingers at the little girl. Oh, how scared she was!"

"The dark can't hurt anybody," said Jack bravely.

Daddy smiled. "Finally the little girl thought: 'I haven't done anything naughty. Why should my brothers do this naughty thing to my poor doll?' Then she thought again: 'Yes, I did. I laughed at an old duck that had a red rag tied around its left foot. It's very wrong to laugh at dumb animals that can't help themselves.' She looked up at her doll and asked, 'Have you ever laughed at dumb animals?' And the poor doll shook her head and tumbled right down out of the tree," daddy ended the bedtime story.

MISS OPPORTUNITY YOU MISS SUCCESS

Waiting For the Seventh Wave
Is Foolish.

WISCONSIN FIRM'S SCHEME.

An Up to Date Merchant Who Successfully Fought Fire With Fire—Local Dealers Request Consumers to Give Them an Opportunity to Figure. Can and Will Meet Competition.

[Copyrighted, 1914, by Thomas J. Sullivan.]
If you want to succeed in the world you must make your own opportunities as you go on.

The man who waits for the seventh wave to toss him on dry land will find that the seventh wave is a long time in coming. You can commit no greater folly than to sit by the roadside until some one comes along and invites you to ride with him to wealth or influence.

Business men, local and otherwise, in the entire country, are desirous of increasing and extending their business, and if they did not care to do this they would not be in business.

Can Successfully Cope.

It is doubtful if there be a local retailer in the country who could not successfully cope with the mail order and catalogue retailer would he but try. This local merchant may not know, but nevertheless it is an absolute fact.

There is a retail firm in a town in Wisconsin which conspicuously displays upon its counters one of the catalogues of the largest Chicago mail order houses, upon the cover of which is pasted a notice that it will furnish any article advertised in the catalogue as cheaply as the buyer can secure the articles from Chicago, and it lives up to the advertisement attached to the very letter.

Mail Order House Seconds.

The substantial local merchant knows well that the cheap goods sold by the catalogue mail order houses are lightweight goods; that the iron beds shown in the advertisement matter as massive frames with strong corner posts and heavy crossbars are light, frail castings, commonly known to the trade as "seconds," which no honest or reliable furniture dealer would keep in his stock because he could not sell them to people who were given an opportunity to inspect the goods before purchasing.

It is only on very rare occasions that patrons of a mail order house ever get the worth of their money when they buy from the pictures in the catalogue, while, on the other hand, the local retailer, if he understands his business, buys his stock direct from the manufacturers and jobbers who have a reputation at stake and who supply goods of quality to their direct representatives, the retail merchants, throughout the country.

Prize Their Reputations.

The responsible high grade manufacturer and wholesaler will not under any condition or circumstance sell their goods to the catalogue retailer at any price. Many instances are known where catalogue houses secured by trickery a quantity of staple goods of standard make and advertised them as "specials" at ridiculously low prices. The manufacturers, in order to protect their reputations and interests, necessarily had orders sent in for the entire stock or quantity of the articles through persons in their employ. They did not propose to have their articles, which were standard, advertised by the side of inferior articles of light weight and of decidedly cheap construction.

A Vast Difference.

There are numerous articles which the catalogue house advertises as the best on the market, among which are paints, and it often agrees to furnish an impossible guarantee with this class of goods. However, it is very noticeable that it never attempts to ship its paints into states that require a printed copy of the analysis of the contents of the package.

The answer to this, of course, is that the goods are not as represented in the catalogue. The up to date local merchant, of course, is conversant with these facts and can explain them to his customers if given an opportunity, and he can also, if he understands his business thoroughly, explain the vast difference between the goods sold by the catalogue house and those sold by him.

Articles Challenge Explanations.
The cheap, flashy, flimsy article can never stand alongside of the honest, reliable article without challenging an explanation.

The business man who cannot meet this demand upon him is not up to date, and his education regarding the line of goods he carries should be touched up.

If the home town consumers are alive and awake to their own interest they can begin to educate the local merchants by demanding from them the information concerning the differ-

OREGON ATHLETES

SHOWN IN FILMS

At the Princess theatre tonight, movie fans will see the athletic reel which features Landers and Loomis, the two Oregon, Ill., athletes. These young men have made a name for themselves on the cinder path, they being the best pair of amateur athletes in the United States. Landers alone has won nearly all the meets. At the Stag meet in Chicago he won enough points to defeat all the others. Landers has been proclaimed the best amateur athlete in the world. He won the Stag meet in Chicago, the Wisconsin meet at Madison, the Beloit Interscholastic and the Peoria and Missouri high school meets. At Illinois University the team was third.

The Princess theatre tonight will feature Wm. Stowel and Helen Ross in a western drama entitled "The Release of Old Dan Forbes," and a laughable comedy entitled "Out for the Count," produced by Du Vogue company.

CORT THEATRE, CHICAGO

Maude Elburne, the comedienne, who is continuing to climb high on the theatrical ladder of fame by her impersonations of efficiency housekeeper in "A Pair of Queens," H. H. Frazee's great farce success at the Cort Theatre, Chicago, is on her good behavior these days and she wouldn't miss a cue or mistake a line in the play for anything. Maude has been under constant surveillance recently, for her severest critic is her nine year old daughter Marian.

Marian is a golden haired youngster of the precocious kind. She is a pupil at a Canadian convent but now vacation days are here and she is with her mother. She knows all her mother's lines in "A Pair of Queens" and all the stage business. For a week now she has been perched on a high chair in the wings where she can keep her eyes on her mother.

"You were not very good tonight, mother," said the youngster after a recent performance. "You missed several laughs."

And Maude never said a word for she knows it's bad form to quarrel with a critic.

PROHIBITIONISTS IN NATIONAL CONVENTION

MEETING CALLED TO ORDER TODAY BY CHAIRMAN VIRGIL HINSHAW

SAYS PARTY HAS FINE CHANCE

(Associated Press)

St. Paul, July 19—The Prohibition National Convention assembled this morning in the Auditorium at St. Paul, Minn., representing delegates and visitors from every state in the Union, was formally opened by Virgil G. Hinshaw, National Chairman. Mr. Hinshaw, in his opening remarks, spoke in part as follows:

"This convention completes the rounding out of 46 years of uninterrupted history.

"Greenbackers, Populists and Bull Moosers may perish from the earth, but we live on forever, or until our purpose is achieved.

"Our party ship has served as a refuge to those who would vote with those who have been cast adrift by wrecked liners.

"This, the year 1916, marks the high-tide of Prohibition sentiment in America and the world. We are anew an avenue of expression for the multitudes who have caught the vision and desire to register their convictions for an emancipated womanhood and childhood, for the abolishment of crime by the elimination of crime's producer, for the ultimate establishment of a world court of justice, and for an honest government.

"We are met here to put in nomination candidates for President and Vice-President the mention of whose names will be felt and recognized in every home in America.

"We are here to inaugurate a campaign that will reach every voter of every county and every state of the Union. We are here to enlist service, to call for sacrifice, and to perfect an organization that will be as efficient as our conscience is clear and as productive of results as our mind is purposeful.

"We have a clear field. We are the one organization in this campaign that stands for the woman, the child, the home, and for the conservation of humanity."

were in very dry condition, while those the hired help shocked heated and molded in the bin. He went on to add that if a good shocker cost $10 a day he is cheap as compared to a careless shocker at $3 per day. My observations show that this is very true.

Always Prepare for the Worst.

In four years I have seen two oat crops badly damaged, causing thousands of dollars of loss, due largely to a lack of proper care in shocking. The following suggestions seem very timely.

1. Shock each year as if shocks were to stand a long period of time.
2. Shock to withstand a long period of rain. No one knows when this might come.
3. Make the smallest shock that will stand well.
4. Always put on cap or cover bundle.
5. Adjust the binder so as to make the best balanced bundle possible, insuring better shocking.
6. Be on the field all the time; be with the boys if you desire the best shocking.
7. Three pairs of bundles, set together so as to meet like a gable roof with two bundles leaning upon the middle pair, and with one cap bundle with top to south, make the best kind of a shock for rainy weather. The gable of this shock should be set north and south. Oats growing in the shock is largely avoided in this way, since direct sunlight may reach all exposed heads.

BROTHER IS ILL

Mrs. J. H. Llevan of Peoria Ave. received word Tuesday morning that her brother, Henry Genck of Fort Madison, Ia., is seriously ill. His three sisters, Mrs. Llevan, Mrs. Susan Feldkirchner, and Mrs. Tobias Switzer left Tuesday morning for their brother's home. Tobias Switzer accompanied his wife.

An Inside Bath Makes You Look and Feel Fresh

Says a glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast keeps illness away.

This excellent, common-sense health measure being adopted by millions.

"Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do. Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach."

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs. Those who wake up with bad breath, coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who care thus for each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

DEMENTTOWN DOINGS

Cheer up. We predict temperature not higher than 10 degrees above zero for Jan. 1.

Owing to its crookedness the letter S is frequently in distress.

Some men are so systematic they kill time that way.

One of the difficult problems of married life is for a man to convince his wife that she can buy things downtown cheaper than any agent will sell them for.

Incidentally the north side has a great mystery. A cushion from the rear seat of a South Dixon automobile furnishes the only clue; and the police are hard at work on it.

Cure Didn't "Take."

A colored man entered the general store of a small Ohio town and complained to the storekeeper that a ham he had purchased there a few days before had proved not to be good.

"The ham is all right, Joe," insisted the storekeeper.

"No it ain't, boss," insisted the other. "Dat ham's sure bad."

"How can that be," continued the storekeeper, "when it was only cured last week?"

"Maybe it's done had a relapse."

HARMON

Harmon, July, 18—Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hunt who were away for several days visiting and on business returned home Wednesday.

The painters and paper hangers have done their work on the McCormick restaurant.

Wm. Camery is busy remodeling his building, getting it ready for a meat market.

The early potatoes are getting ripe; they are of fine quality, of an even size, not scabby as they are some years.

The farmers are about through with their hay making.

Oats will soon be getting ripe; they are looking very fine as you look over the fields.

Some of the farmers are still plowing corn; much of it is quite short; some of it is not over two feet high; that is the majority of it.

Mike Purdue was a caller in Harmon on Thursday; he brings milk to Harmon for shipment.

Frank Hettiger spends most of his time out looking after his farms.

The ground is very dry at Harmon; rain is the one thing needed on the high ground; the grass looks like it had been scorched by the great heat; garden vegetables are suffering for want of moisture; if we do not get rain it will begin to dry up the blackberries.

Edward McCormick has his sister for clerk in his restaurant.

W. H. Kugler and sons were out on the telephone lines doing repairs Thursday.

The Schoaf family motored to Walnut to attend the funeral of Mrs. Schoaf's mother.

John McKeel was putting up his second crop of alfalfa Friday.

John Potts was a caller in Harmon Friday.

The shocks in some of the wheat fields stand thick on the ground and the straw is of average length and it is said to be well filled; much of it has already been cut and in shock; some early oats are beginning to turn and will soon be ready to cut; in many places it is very short, not being more than twelve inches high. The corn in the west part of Marion is very poor; can not see how it will make a crop; much of it is not more than four or six inches high; on some places it is very uneven; spots of it nearly four feet high and others not more than six inches; the color of the short corn is rather of a pale yellow than of a dark green, that it should be. Last Friday many of the farmers were in the fields making hay; drawing it to the barn, while others were as busy cutting wheat and putting it on the shock.

Mrs. Dale, who has been in Harmon for some time during the illness and death of her mother, returned to her home in Missouri last Friday; she had her little son with her.

Jacob Rhodenbaugh and his men have finished raising the house they were at; they put two layers of cement blocks on the wall, which helps the look of the house after being raised.

John Behrendt is busy at work on the Ross house on his farm.

Frank Swartz was in Harmon Monday, having feed ground at the farmers' elevator.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backache or have bladder trouble—Take glass of Salts.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

CASEMENT'S APPEAL FAILS, GALLONS NEAR

Sir Roger's Only Hope Is Through Prosecutor.

London, July 19.—Without hearing the attorneys for the crown, the Court of Criminal Appeal dismissed Sir Roger Casement's appeal from the verdict of the lower court which found him guilty of treason for which Viscount Reading, the Lord Chief Justice sentenced him to death.

For a day and a half Alexander Sullivan, Sir Roger's counsel, argued before the court, quoting many authorities in favor of his contention that the offense of treason depended upon whether the accused dwelt under the protection of the king and that the crime could not be committed without the realm. He abandoned his other points in regard to the lord chief justice's definition of the offense.

A further appeal to the house of lords is possible only if the attorney general gives a certificate that the decision of the Court of Criminal Appeal involves a point of law so exceptionally important that it is desirable in the public interest that a still higher court should deal with it. This has been done only twice since the Court of Criminal Appeal was established, eight years ago.

Sounds from Buried Miners. Joplin, Mo., July 19.—The sounds of picks striking against rocks, heard in a drift of the Babcock mine, gave hope to the crews who are working feverishly in an effort to save four men who were imprisoned by a cave-in there.

Samuel J. Wheaton, Republican candidate for Coroner of Lee County, Steward, Illinois, Subject to Republican Primaries.

THIS IS CERTAIN

THE PROOF THAT DIXON READERS CANNOT DENY

What could furnish stronger evidence of the efficiency of any remedy than the test of time? Thousands of people testify that Doan's Kidney Pills have brought lasting results.

Home endorsement should prove undoubtedly the merit of this remedy. Years ago your friends and neighbors testified to the relief they had derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. They now confirm their testimonials. They say time has completed the test.

C. J. Kirkham, 522 Peoria Ave., Dixon, says: "I suffered from pains across my back for a long time. I didn't think the trouble was caused by disordered kidneys, but when a friend recommended Doan's Pills, I got a box at Leake Bros. Drug store. They completely rid me of the backache and all other symptoms of kidney complaint."

OVER THREE YEARS LATER, Mr. Kirkham said: "Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney disease and the cure has been permanent."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kirkham has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

With the coming of fall, however, Mr. Rorer will open the Galena avenue play house under some plan and will probably give a good program of high class road shows during the winter, with possibly regular Saturday and Sunday night features also.

BATTLE CRAZED NEGRO, 6 KILLED

Religious Fanatic and Wife Die as House Is Dynamited.

POLICEMAN IS AMONG VICTIMS

Insane Blacks Arouse Neighbors by Singing and Shooting, and Kill Them as They Peer Out Doors—Several Persons Are Wounded—Police Bullet Ends Rampage.

Chicago, July 19.—Henry McIntyre, a full blooded African negro, was overcome with a mania to annihilate the world at 4:30 a. m. Four hours later he and his wife were carried out of their home at 320 North Irving avenue. He had killed four persons, one of them a policeman; wounded three others and kept an infuriated posse of 100 police and 100 neighbors armed with rifles, shotguns and revolvers at bay during that time. He was captured after three charges of dynamite had been exploded over his head and under his feet to dislodge him. During the siege the vicinity for a radius of two blocks was filled with terror.

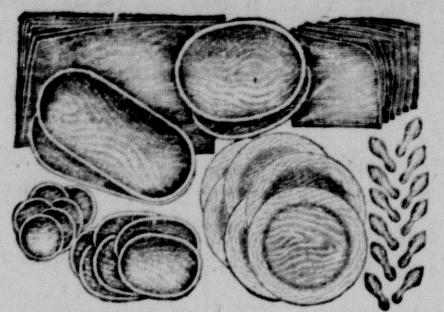

Hundreds of Shots Exchanged.
Hundreds of shots were exchanged, McIntyre firing at every exposed body. The police surrounding him with a cordon of guns, waited for him to show himself. He stuck behind his barricade until Captain Wesley H. Westbrook of the Warren avenue police station, set off two dynamite charges over his head and one in a tunnel under his feet. The posses then rushed forward shouting.

The first two policemen inside the riddled and shattered house were "Eddie" Hughes and Michael Courtney. On the floor, her body perforated with bullets, her head nearly blown off and a heavy cartridge belt around her waist, lay McIntyre's wife. Her husband was still alive—still on his feet. He had been partly stunned by the explosion. He was staggering, trying to raise his gun to fire when the two policemen came upon him. "Eddie" Hughes let go and the bullet caught McIntyre in the head. He died a few minutes later in the Park avenue hospital.

Curious Neighbors Slain.
The neighbors were first aroused by McIntyre and his wife singing and shooting. Alfred Matthews, a negro, went to his front door to see what it was about, and a bullet passed through his head killing him instantly. Another negro neighbor, Hampton Knox, his wife, Sadie Knox, and a niece were also drawn to their porches, when Knox was instantly killed, and his wife seriously wounded. Crowds gathered by this time, and the police had hardly reached the spot and tried to enter the house, before Officer Stuart Dean was killed on the threshold of the negro's door.

The Dead and Injured are: Stuart Dean, sixty years old, killed outright; Hampton Knox, thirty years old, negro, killed instantly; Alfred Matthews, forty years old, negro killed instantly; Mrs. Lutz Overmeyer, twenty-eight years old, killed instantly; Mrs. Hattie McIntyre, found in wreck of her home with head shattered and dead from numerous bullet wounds; Henry McIntyre, negro, responsible for the killings, shot in head by Policeman Edward Hughes, died at Park avenue hospital; Edward Clement, detective sergeant, forty-six years old, shot three times; taken to the Park avenue hospital, condition serious; Grover Crabtree, twenty-seven years old, patrolman of the Desplaines street station shot in right wrist and right elbow; Mrs. Sadie Knox, forty years old, gunshot wound in the back, taken to the county hospital, serious; John Lavin, policeman of Warren avenue station, wrist broken trying to smash door.
